

Did you know?

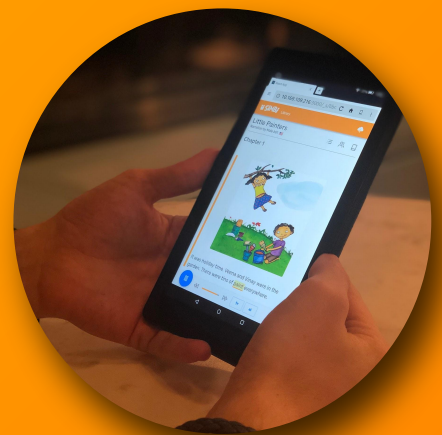

258 million children around the world do not have access to education, leading to challenges that perpetuate the poverty cycle.

The challenge

Join high school students across Canada to narrate 1,000 story books before the end of 2020! Let's end this year with impact!

How do I read for good?

Simbi Foundation invites you to narrate digital storybooks on Simbi, the reading platform used by over 50,000 learners in 63 countries, including 37,000 remote and refugee learners in Uganda and India.

How does my voice create impact?

Your voice helps diversify Simbi's library of thousands of narrated books, helping children learn to read. By reading aloud, you impact global literacy, and earn volunteer hours!

I'm up for the challenge!

What do I do now?
